

Evening Standard - November 2005

Beauty Buyography

Trinny Woodall

The What Not To Wear presenter and style pundit, 41, lives in North Kensington with her husband, Johnnie, and daughter Lyla, two.

In my make-up bag you'll find...
 Mac Body Foundation, £23 (020 7534 9222), Dr Hauschka Toned Day Cream instead of foundation, £21 (01386 792 642), Guerlain Divinora Kiss Kiss Gloss, £14 (01932 233 909), Screenface Barely Blushing gel for lips and cheeks, £8.50 (020 7221 8289).

My daily beauty routine is...
 In the morning I use Jason one-minute facial, Jan Marini C-Esta lotion (at Richard Ward, 020 7245 6151), Dr Sebagh's vitamin C powder, Crème de la Mer face serum, £150 (0870 034 2566), Embryolisse Crème hydratante, £15.30 (beautycenter.co.uk).

My newest beauty discovery is...
 Proto-Col pure collagen capsules £59.90 (clearskin-uk.co.uk). What you put on your face you should take on the inside, too.

My face looks naked without...
 Screenface Barely Blushing gel.

I shop for products at...
 I love Space NK and US department stores.

I can't live without...
 C-Esta lotion. It protects against smoke and fumes.

I take in my hand luggage...
 Essential oils, which I dot on the seat to protect me from germs and make me smell nice.

My signature scent is...
 Vetiver, £28, by Guerlain (01932 233 909).

My view on plastic surgery is...
 I think prevention is the best cure when it comes to ageing.

Read more beauty tomorrow in ES Magazine

